

State To Hold Hearings On Rt. 15 By-pass If Requested

The state Department of Highways announced today at Harrisburg that it will schedule a public hearing, if requested, on the proposed relocation of U.S. Route 15 between the Maryland state line and the York Springs bypass.

The proposed relocation will bypass Gettysburg on the east.

The department proposes to use federal funds to pay half the cost of the 22½ miles of divided highway which will not only bypass Gettysburg but will not disturb the National Park here.

The proposed route also will bypass Heidlersburg on the east and will end at the southern end of the York Springs bypass which was completed several years ago.

The federal Highways Act of 1956 requires that opportunity be given for public hearings to determine the economic effect of the proposed project.

July 25 Deadline

Requests for a public hearing are to be made in writing to the District 8 office of the state Department of Highways, 21st and Herr Sts., Harrisburg. Plans for construction and location of the new highway may be inspected there.

The deadline for filing requests for a hearing is July 25, today's announcement said.

When the York Springs bypass was constructed, a public hearing was requested and was held there.

The Highways Department pointed out today that the current plans will virtually complete the modernization of Rt. 15 between Harrisburg and the Maryland line. The first of the modernization projects was completed in the early 1950's.

DIVIDE COUNTY FARM INTO FIVE SELLING PLOTS

The Adams County Commissioners today announced they have divided for sale purposes the former Adams County farm into five plots totaling 173½ acres.

The commissioners said they had previously held up announcement of the proposal because of a promise to the local National Park officials to wait until July 1 with the hope that government or Battlefield Preservation Association could by that time secure funds to purchase the land over which the Union and Confederate forces fought on July 1, 1863.

July 1 was the latest date that the proposal could be withheld because of the need for funds to help defray the cost of the new $500,000 county home now under construction, the commissioners said.

Need Court Approval
In laying out the five plots, the commissioners said numbering of the plots was for easy identification and did not indicate any order of sale. The division was made because it was believed that (Continued On Page 2)

Castro Boils At Slash In U.S. Sugar Imports

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
HAVANA (AP)—The U.S. cut in imports of Cuban sugar sent Fidel Castro into a boiling rage today, but the wild-eyed prime minister did not disclose immediately what American property he intends to seize next in retaliation.

Fuming with anger, Castro appealed to other Latin-American nations to rally behind his "fight against American oligarchy." He told a workers' meeting the Cubans ordered by President Eisenhower would not halt his left-leaning revolution and charged Eisenhower acted in a "moment of hate, degradation, insanity and stupidity."

A giant labor rally has been called for Sunday in the vast plaza before the presidential palace in Havana to demonstrate "the Cuban people's unity in the face of Yankee aggression." Castro is expected to use his mass meeting to dramatize his announcement of how he intends to strike back at the United States with his new power to seize any American property in the "national interest."

EXTRA JURORS TO BE DRAWN FOR AUGUST

Adams County will draw 100 jurymen for August to take care of the regular trials plus the Elmo Smith trial transferred here from Montgomery County.

Judge W. C. Sheely and Associates Earl Guise and Clarence Deardoff this morning handed down an order directing the jury commissioners to empanel 24 jurymen for grand jury duty in August and 100 for petit jury duty. Normally the call is for 48 petit jurors—the extra 52 were decided upon because of the additional trial.

It was also learned that the jurymen may have more comfortable quarters when they hear trials in August. Wednesday the county commissioners spoke with air conditioning engineers and sound proofing experts to determine the possible cost of such installations if it is decided to go ahead with them.

Continue Gift Hearing
The commissioners are expected to make a final decision at their meeting next Wednesday. Such improvements to the court room have been under study for some time and several grand juries have made recommendation that some method be sought to cut out the great amount of noise in the court room.

Hearing of testimony continued today in the action brought by Emory Gitt, Littlestown R. D., to have the court set aside the will of his nephew, the late Merle Gitt, on grounds that Merle Gitt was incapable of knowing what he was doing when he signed a will leaving his property to Mrs. Edna Albert who cared for him. Merle Gitt was under care of a court appointed guardian during the latter part of his life.

Airman Fred A. Furney, 21, Is Among 17 Feared Lost In Crash Of Navy Blimp On Search Mission Off New Jersey Coast

By RUSSELL H. MULLEN
LAKEHURST, N. J. (AP)—A huge Navy blimp crumpled in the air on a search mission Wednesday and crashed "like a sagging banana" into the ocean off the New Jersey coast.

One airman was killed and 17 feared lost in the sunken wreckage.

Three crewmen survived. They were picked up by several boats out fishing on the calm Atlantic under sunny skies.

Cause Is Mystery
The Navy said it was mystified as to the cause of the disaster.

One of the survivors said a helium line may have ruptured causing the sausage-like bag to collapse.

The Doris May III reached the scene three minutes after the 403-foot blimp fell limply into the water.

"It looked like a sagging banana. Then it crumpled and came down in a hurry," said Frank Mikuletzky, 19, of Barnegat Light, a mate aboard the fishing vessel.

Searching For Sloop
He jumped overboard with a life ring and pulled survivors from the floating wreckage.

The blimp had been out on a search patrol for the 40-foot sloop Vat 69, reported missing with a crew of seven or eight on her way home from the Newport, R.I. to Bermuda sailboat race last month.

Ironically the yacht was found safe by a Navy submarine at almost the same moment the huge blimp radioed the international distress call "May Day, May Day."

Grapple For Wreckage
Those were the only words heard from the blimp, one of four of the ZPG3W class, the largest airship in the world.

"It just collapsed in mid-air," said Charles Schleifer of Old Zionsville, Pa., who had been fishing nearby.

"The stern was very low and the front was up in the air. I don't see how anybody could have jumped. I say maybe it was 200 feet in the air before it dropped."

One of the fishermen jumped aboard the gondola "to see if anybody was still living. He yelled real loud. When he came back he said there was oil and debris in the water but he did not see anyone."

A Navy board under the command of Capt. F. N. Klein, commander of Fleet Airship Wing One to which the blimp belonged, will investigate.

Had Been Sleeping
One of the survivors, AE/2 Joseph Culligan, 20, of East Keansburg, said he had been sleeping and woke to find the gondola filling with water.

"I stood up, picked up a piece of jagged metal, cut a hole in the fabric of the balloon and got into the water."

About 10 other crewmen were also asleep, he said.

Also rescued were ACW/3 Donald L. Shaumer of Flint, Mich., and AEM/3 Antonio Contreras of Geronimo, Texas.

Died Of Broken Neck
A fourth man, AC/3 Edward B. Turner of Joppa, Md., was fished from the water and transferred to the aircraft carrier Essex and thence by air to shore where he was pronounced dead of a broken neck. The Essex had been in New York over the Fourth of July and reached the scene 20 minutes after the crash.

Rose Ann Shoppe clearance sale of Cindarella frocks, 28 York St., Gettysburg, Pa.

A Gettysburg man, AMS/2 Fred Allen Furney, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Furney, Sunset Ave., is among the Navy personnel feared dead in the crash of one of the world's largest blimps into the Atlantic Ocean 80 miles south of New York City.

The young sailor, who starred as an athlete at Gettysburg High School in football, basketball and baseball, had been in the Navy four years and was starting his second enlistment.

Married to the former Freda Warner, of Biglerville, he and his wife and two-year-old daughter resided at Tom's River R. 2, N. J., while Airman Furney served as a cook on the Navy blimps used for radar patrol over the Atlantic out of Lakehurst, N. J.

Parents Go To Lakehurst

The blimp, the ZPG-3W, one of four blimps owned by the Navy which are the world's largest such aircraft, was taking part in a sea-air search for a missing racing yacht which later was discovered by a submarine.

The huge ship was about seven miles southeast of the Barnegat Lightship, or 16 miles southeast of the New Jersey community of Barnegat Light, when fishermen saw it fall into the sea.

Airman Furney's parents left early this morning for Lakehurst after notification from the Navy that their son was one of those missing in the disaster. A Navy officer told the Furneys that the Navy is continuing its search for the gondola and it was hoped that perhaps it could be found. The Furneys have another son, Robert, who graduated this June from Gettysburg High School.

Near Akron Disaster Scene
The blimp, which with its three sister ships became operational last October, held 1,500,000 cubic feet of helium. It was 403 feet long and 118 feet high.

Normally on radar patrol of the Atlantic coast, the huge airships were equipped with elaborate electronic devices and carried a huge radarscope. Normal crew of the ship is 25. There were 22 aboard at the time of the accident.

The crash by the blimp occurred in the area where the Navy dirigible Akron broke apart in 1933 causing the death of 73 men. While searching for the Akron survivors, area killing three. On June 8, 1942, two small blimps collided in the area causing the death of 12 men. In 1943 another collision of two blimps occurred in the area, killing ten.

Furney was graduated from Gettysburg High School with the class of 1956 and entered Navy training almost immediately.

GOOD WEATHER HELPS CHERRY PICKING START

Ideal weather prevailed as thousands of cherry pickers of all ages converged upon Adams County's orchards for the annual red tart cherry harvest. Most of the orchards started harvesting operations on Tuesday with some spot picking having taken place at the end of last week.

Canning operations at the C. H. Musselman Company's Biglerville plant started Tuesday evening, expanding into a two-shift operation on Wednesday. Production is being divided between a frozen pack, the standard "hot pack" and the company's newest cherry product known as "cherry dessert."

Cherry dessert packed in heavy syrup is a versatile product that can be used for pies, as dessert toppings, in puddings, fruit cups, gelatin desserts and salads. The frozen fruit, packed in 30 lb. tins, will ultimately be used for the manufacture of cherry pie filling, one of an assortment of ready-to-serve fillings produced at the Biglerville plant.

Premium Scale
The Musselman Company announced a price based on eight cents per pound for 95 per cent grade cherries using the same sliding scale as last year when the corresponding price was six and one quarter cents per pound. The Musselman scale places a premium on high quality cherries in line with its policy to continuously improve the quality of its finished products. Under this scale it is possible for growers to receive as high as 8.4 cents per lb. depending on the grade of U. S. 1's above 95 per cent.

All cherries are purchased under federal-state inspection with payments made on the usual cash basis.

Pennsylvania's crop has been indicated by USDA at 9,000 tons compared to 11,500 tons last year, a decrease of about 20 per cent. Nationally, the crop is predicted at 115,160 tons against 137,030 tons in 1959. Of the five major cherry producing states in the Great Lakes Area only Ohio, which accounts for the smallest percentage, shows an increase over last year.

Operation at the company's Inwood, W. Va., plant were started on June 28. The West Virginia crop, which had been predicted as "almost wiped out" due to poor pollination, proved to be a surprise with more than half as many tons delivered to Inwood as last year.

DIVIDE COUNTY

sale could more easily be made by division into plots than by offering the entire area as one property.

The commissioners, in seeking buyers for the land, also noted that all sales must obtain court approval before they can be consummated.

One Plot Optional

Plot No. 1 is the 33 acres east of the Harrisburg Rd., between WGET and the Eisenhower school, now on option to a Baltimore contractor. The commissioners said the option is on a 30-day basis and can be terminated at the end of any 30-day period if another purchaser comes up with a firm offer.

Plot No. 2 is the 31-acre area extending from Howard Ave. north along the Biglerville Rd. then back to Barlow's Knoll, adjoining land of Wilbur Redding on the one side, with the Biglerville Rd. and the battlefield's Howard Ave. as the other boundaries.

New Road Planned

Plot No. 3 consists of 39 acres and is the area between the Biglerville and Harrisburg Rds. just north of the jail and county home. It is bounded on the east by the Harrisburg Rd., on the west by the Biglerville Rd., on the north by Howard Ave. and on the south by a proposed new Cumberland Twp. Rd. that will extend from the Harrisburg Rd. to the Biglerville Rd., thus permitting traffic to go from one road to the other without entering Gettysburg or crossing the battlefield avenue. The commissioners announced they planned to give Cumberland Twp. the land for the road which will utilize in part the present road from the jail to the county home and will go through the site where the county home barn is now located, Clerk Crosby N. Hartzell said.

Plot No. 4 contains 60 acres and is located along the Biglerville Rd. adjoining land of A. W. Butterfield on the north, and on the west and east by land of Philip M. Jones and Clark Smith.

Hospital in fair condition. Culligan and Contreras were treated at the Naval Air Station here.

The blimp had eight officers and 13 enlisted men.

"Like A Big Rag"

"We were blue fishing when right on the bow we saw the blimp collapse amidship," said Capt. Charlie Eble of the Doris III. "The gondola fell first. It seemed just like a great big rag falling."

The blimp hit the water about 15 miles southeast of Barnegat Inlet and some 115 miles southeast of New York City.

The $12,000,000 airship, of the Reliance type, is used for radar patrol.

In 55 Feet Of Water

A Coast Guard cutter placed an anchor into the wreckage today. Three Navy salvage ships were on the way to the scene 15 miles off Barnegat Inlet.

Capt. F. N. Klein Jr., commander of Fleet Airship Wing No. 1, said the wreckage is in water 55 feet deep and that the currents are shifting.

He told a news conference that part of the blimp's gondola is still believed attached to the 403-foot bag.

Heard Loud Noise

Klein said one of the survivors, AEM-3 Antonio Contreras of Geronimo, Tex., told his rescuers that the blimp was flying at 300 feet deep and that the currents are shifting.

Contreras reported the ship went into the water at a 45-degree, nose-down angle. He heard no "ditch" alarm.

After escaping through the aft cargo door, Contreras said he saw four other people in the water. He was picked up by a fishing boat in the area.

Still Seek Survivors

Asked if the three sister ships of the blimp will be grounded until the Navy's investigation is completed, Klein replied that they won't be flying for a while but may be used in an emergency.

Contreras said Lt. Joseph J. Saniuk of Lakewood, N.J., and Omaha, Neb., skipper of the blimp, was in command at the time of the crash.

Helicopters and blimps hovered overhead as ships continued to scour the area for possible survivors.

CHURCH EDITOR RAPS SUCCESS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—An editor of a Christian publication today said churches have accepted materialistic standards as the measurement of success.

To counteract this, Dr. Martin E. Marty, associated editor of the Christian Century, Chicago, told the five-day Conference on Church and Community churches must study and teach basic Christian philosophy and recover the early concept of Christian discipline.

The conference, which started here Tuesday, is studying the factors in the changing communities and how the church can meet the situation with creative programs.

The seminar is co-sponsored by Pennsylvania State University and the State Council of Churches, which represents 47 separate Protestant bodies with a membership of three million Pennsylvanians.

Attending the conference are 75 selected church leaders who hold positions of responsibility in church planning and adjustment.

KNOUSE BUYS 740 ACRES IN FRANKLIN CO.

M. E. Knouse, president, general manager and treasurer of Knouse Foods Cooperative, Peach Glen, confirmed that he has purchased the former D. M. Wertz orchards in Quincy and Washington Twp., Franklin County.

The tracts total approximately 740 acres planted in apples, cherries and peaches.

Knouse purchased the orchard holdings from Lee F. Esser and Paul E. Zeger who had bought the orchards a year ago from a group of four people.

At that time both men were executives with the co-operative. Esser remains as sales manager but on May 1 Zeger resigned his post as treasurer to become vice president of Seeman Brothers, a wholesale distributing firm in New York City.

Following the death of the late D. M. Wertz in 1940 control of the orchards passed to his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Calvert N. Ellis, Huntingdon, in partnership with two cousins, Jack Oiler, Huntingdon, and J. F. Oiler, Waynesboro.

The sale announcement came as pickers moved into the orchards' 55 acres of sour cherries.

Ed Noll will continue as superintendent of the farms with Harold Steiner continuing as general manager for Knouse. Also continued in his post will be Ralph Zeger as office manager.

ROME RIOTING BRINGS POLICE MEETING BANS

By EUGENE LEVIN

ROME (AP)—Italy's ancient capital looked like an armed camp today as police took up strategic positions against the threat of more Communist-Fascist trouble after a wild night of rioting.

Rome's Chamber of Labor, protesting police action against the Communist-led rioters, called an 11-hour general strike in the capital and surrounding province beginning at 1 p.m.

Police headquarters banned all public meetings in Rome Province in an attempt to forestall rallies planned today by the Fascists in Rome and the Communists in the port city of Civitavecchia north of the capital.

200 Injured

About 200 persons were injured in violent street fighting Wednesday night that turned a section of the city into a battlefield and set off fist fights in Parliament.

More than 50, half of them police, were hospitalized.

More fireworks appeared likely in Parliament today as leftist legislators pressed for a government statement on the clashes.

The street fighting flared in Rome when police tried to break up an estimated 10,000 World War II partisans and their supporters who massed in defiance of a police ban. A Communist-led police organization called the rally to protest plans of the Italian Social Movement (MSI), Italy's Fascist party, to hold a national congress.

OLD SCHOOL AT ABBOTTSTOWN WILL BE SOLD

The Abbottstown grade school has been closed and the students there will attend the New Oxford schools starting in September. Charles L. Taylor, supervising principal of the Lower Adams Joint School System, announced today.

Decision to close the school came as a result of state orders to either close or make extensive alterations to the structure. With the construction of the new high school at New Oxford, there will be room in the old high school building for use by pupils and as a result the jointure decided to transport the children to New Oxford, Taylor said.

The Lower Adams board is planning to offer the Abbottstown school building and land at public sale in the near future. Taylor added that land for future school needs in the Abbottstown area has been purchased, thus indicating that in future years, as student population grows, a new school will probably be constructed in Abbottstown.

Teachers Elected

Taylor announced the following business transacted at a meeting of the Lower Adams Joint School board:

Elected were two new teachers. Miss Susan Baumgardner, a graduate of Littlestown High School and Gettysburg College, who did her practice teaching in Hanover. She will receive the starting salary of $3,800. Rush Knouse, Hanover, who has been doing special education work, was named to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Louis Daugherty. He will receive $4,800 plus $200 for duties as faculty advisor for the yearbook.

The transportation was authorized to purchase five extinguishers and tires that may be needed for the school buses. Bids are to be secured on these items. Deviations in construction at the new high school also were approved. These amount to $481 and included such changes as additional masonry work, painting, installation of several cabinets, insulation and carpentry work. The matter of enlarging the pond at the school site (a request by the architect) was referred to the school authority.

Table Mt. Pleasant Request

Richard Swope, Abbottstown, and C. Warren Baugher, New Oxford R. 1, were re-elected as members of the school authority. Terms of these two members had expired.

Tabled was a request from H. B. Millar, janitor in the elementary school, for an increase in salary. Two residents of Mt. Pleasant Twp., Rodney Ernst and Daniel Hoffman, visited the meeting with a communication requesting the board to pay tuition for 10 pupils to attend the Gettysburg schools. This matter also was tabled for study.

Bills amounting to $22,969.09 were approved for payment. Pro-rata share for each member of the jointure is: Abbottstown, $2,365.82; Berwick Twp., $5,866.31; Hamilton Twp., $3,169.73; Mt. Pleasant Twp., $2,696.57; New Oxford, $3,580.88; Oxford Twp., $4,054; Tyrone Twp., $1,235.74. The next meeting will be held Monday, August 3.

Frankie Lester To Perform At Hershey

When Frankie Lester brings the Billy May Band to Starlight Ballroom of Hershey Park Saturday, July 9, local dance enthusiasts will see an unusual blending of two talents that has resulted in one of the finest musical combinations ever to come across the modern musical horizon.

Billy May's Band, once called "a tidal wave of fresh, musical expression," has long been a favorite. When the management of the band was taken over by an agency, the plan was to couple the orchestra with a singing leader whose voice and singing style blended with the band. The selection of Frankie Lester was a "natural" because of the young singer's vast experience. His career includes featured roles with Ted Lewis, Tommy Dorsey, Hal McIntyre and Buddy Morrow. The latter featured Frankie on all his records. Lester went on to a promising career as a "single," but couldn't forget his love of the big band sound. He has always wanted to lead his own band,

The truck, which hit a bridge abutment after overturning, was damaged to the extent of $10,000. It is owned by D. A. Stuckell and Son, Hagerstown. Damage to the bridge was placed at $200. Police said the bull is owned by Allen J. Myers, Hanover R. 2.

Today's Talk
ROCK ME IN THE CRADLE
How wonderful is that force which takes our eyelids and gently presses them tightly—to sleep!

Completely lost as we are in a quiet and serene oblivion, while darkness wraps us in its arms, yet are we cared for, watched over,
and renewed for the great activities of the coming day.

Mysterious as death must inevitably be, still it can be little more so—nor more wonderful—than is our nightly sleep.
Knowing no more about the one than the other, so far as its mysterious elements are concerned, yet do we trust the one and accept the inevitability of the other.

How precious to the weary is the gracious gift of sleep: how full of welcome to him who has thought and planned and done his best.

How wise a philosophy—this "early to bed and early to rise!"
For sleep, in reality, is a benefactor of power, the "chief nourisher of life."

Tired, worried, disheartened—alone—it is then that sleep creeps in to offer balm and comfort, to reshape in the night that which came ruffled during the day. And like the new visions that flash into our senses in a glorious country, so do the new days come to us—
made fragrant by the touch of night.

"Oh sleep! it is a gentle thing, Beloved from pole to pole."
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Carry On"

Life is a gift that the humblest
may boast of,
And one that the humblest may well make the most of.
Get out and live it each hour of the day;
Wear it and use it as much as you may;
Don't keep it in niches and corners and grooves.
You'll find that in services its beauty improves.

PALMER RIVALS
LEADING FIELD
IN TITLE RUN

By JOHN FARROW
ST. ANDREWS, Scotland
(AP)—Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., shot a solid two-under-par 71 today in his bid to add the British Open golf championship to the Masters' and U. S. Open crowns. This gave him a two-day total of 141.

Peter Thomson of Australia, four-time winner of the famous British tournament now celebrating its centennial, came in with a 69 to give him a total also of 141 for the first two rounds, for an early tie.

Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)— Arnold Palmer, bidding for golf's triple crown, today cocked a wary eye over his shoulder at two pace-setting South Americans.
Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., already has won the American Open and Masters, he needs the British title to complete the big three.

All the experts forecast that defending champion Gary Player of South Africa and Peter Thomson, a four-time winner of this championship first played 100 years ago, would be Palmer's biggest rivals.

Other Threats
They may still turn out to be exactly that—but Robert De Vicenzo, an Argentinean playing out of Mexico, and Fidel De Luis of Argentina were the men worrying the American champion as 74 players went into the second round of the 72-hole championship over the Old Course.

De Vicenzo took a three-stroke lead over Palmer with a blistering first round of 67. De Luis, 38, and runnerup in the Argentinean championship, was second in the field with a 69.

The field of 74 will be cut to a maximum of 50 low scorers at the end of today. De Vicenzo led the field at the end of the first day with a 67, De Luis and Kel Nagle of Australia both had 69s.

Palmer, Ken Bousfield of England, and Scottish amateur David Blair of Scotland all had 70s. Peter Mills of England had 71. At 72 were Gary Player, South Africa,
Peter Thomson, Australia, Leopoldo
Ruiz, Argentina, British Amateur champion Joe Carr of Ireland, Harold Henning of South Africa, Jose Maria Gonzalez of Brazil, Ralph Moffitt of England,
George Low of England, Angel
Miguel of Spain, amateur A. G.
Munro of England, Bernard Hunt of England and James Martin of Scotland.

Tussing Moves Up To East's
Major College Grid Contests

Ted M. Tussing, Oak Ridge, sales manager for Inland Container Corporation, Biglerville, has recently been promoted to Division I of the Eastern Intercollegiate Football Association of football officials.
This division comprises 100 outstanding officials who handle the major college games played in the East.

The group includes 25 officials for each of the four positions: referee, field judge, umpire and head linesman. Tussing is one of the 25 field judges in Division I whose primary responsibility is control of downfield action as well as timing the game.

The E.I.F.A. is divided into three divisions. When an official passes the required examinations and is accepted into the E.I.F.A., he enters Division III. He then has the opportunity to advance, as a result of examinations and ratings received in each game worked, to B rank in Division II, then A rank and finally into Division I.
Upon attaining Division I, he first enters group C then moves to B and A. The official in group A of Division I is likely to officiate games for such teams as Army, Navy, Pitt and Syracuse. This is the ultimate goal.

Began 10 Years Ago
Ten years ago Tussing began officiating
PIAA junior high school games in suburban Philadelphia.
Acting as counselor and coach, as well as official, many times he went into the huddle with both teams to instruct or encourage ambitious 7th graders in fair play.

He began his football career
under "Snaps" Emmanuel at York High in the early 40's and earned his varsity letter at the University of Pennsylvania as a 17-year-old freshman. Although he was a tailback at York, George Munger and Rae Crowthers moved him to the starting quarterback position of their single wing offense at Penn.
During these years, the Quakers were a national power, playing an intercollegiate schedule.

While living in Philadelphia and in Gettysburg, Tussing has kept in close contact with football, returning to Penn often for Varsity Club and Football Club dinners and meetings. He has been encouraged through the year in his officialing by such men as Jack Glascott, National League referee;
Judge Leo Weinroth, Middle Atlantic commissioner; Joe Lapobum, publicity director of the National Football League, and Don Kellett, general manager of the Baltimore Colts.

Tussing does not wear that famous No. 5 jersey or have an avid student cheering section now, but does have a wife and five football conscious daughters at many of the games he officiates.

TED M. TUSSING

At one of the games a few years ago, after throwing his red flag to call a penalty, the stands were hushed when out of the bleachers came a small excited voice,
"Daddy, you dropped your handkerchief!"

"It is a great honor to be in Division I of the E.I.F.A.," Tussing said, "but with the honor goes a tremendous responsibility to the game, the players, the coaches and the fans as well as the association."

Balding Scorches
Canadian Golf Club

TORONTO (AP)—Al Balding, who has had indifferent luck on the pro golf trail the last several years, hopes his luck has finally changed.

The 36-year-old Toronto shot-smith posted a 8-under-par 64 to take the first round lead Wednesday in the Canadian Open Golf Championship at the suburban St.
George's Club. He goes into today's second round with a one-stroke lead over Don January of Dallas who blew a chance for a tie on the final hole.

Balding also bettered the competitive course record of 65 set by
E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of St.
Louis, when he won the Canadian Open in 1949.

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Thirty of the country's finest professionals and 41 amateurs tee off today in the 72-hole medal play
Trumbull Women's Open Golf Tournament. The amateurs include five state champions.
The professionals will be shooting for $16,000 prize money, the largest bundle of cash ever offered in a Ladies Professional Golf Assn. event. First place will be worth $2,632.

Gettysburg
Little League

The Gettysburg National Bank
outlasted the Rotary in a run-producing see-saw contest Wednesday evening in a Little League encounter at the Recreation Field as the Bankers edged the Rotary 13-12.

The highlight of the game was Dennis Herring's two home runs, the first circuit blows of his career and the first round trippers for the Rotary team this season. Herring belted his first in the fourth to cap a nine-run uprising putting the Rotary ahead 10-8. There were two men on base. His second out came in the sixth with one mate aboard which started a rally, but later fell short.

Dennis Herring and John Flynn set the pace for the Rotary with a trio of hits while Jim Rowe, Ken Weikert and Larry White topped the winners with a pair of safeties each. Both relief hurlers receive Wednesday's decisions. Bob Davies, tossing for Ken Gebhart, is charged with the loss while Larry White, replacing John Eyler, receives the win.

AKINS BLAMES
LOSS ON COLD

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Veteran welterweight Virgil Akins blames a "bad cold" for his lackluster performance against unbeaten Luis Rodriguez before a nationwide TV audience.

"We could have cancelled our appearance if it hadn't been for the benefit," he said after the fight.

Promoter Bill King set aside 35 per cent of the gross gate receipts for the widow and six children of popular Louisville welterweight Rudell Stith who drowned recently in a heroic attempt to save a friend.

CONVENTION SITE BUSTLES WITH ACTIVITY

By BOB THOMAS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Convention lowlights:

Attention Alaska and Hawaii! The big flag flying from the Biltmore Hotel, site of Democratic headquarters, is of the old, 48-star variety.

Workers are still working like ants around the Sports Arena, where the convention proceedings will be held starting Monday. General consensus is they'll never get it off the ground. Want to bet?

Democratic orators will have no need to fumble for words. The podium has three peep-holes which lead to mirrors which reflect TV tubes which carry their texts on a closed-circuit TV channel.

CBS To Handle TV

CBS is grinning happily, having sold its TV coverage to a single appliance maker months ago. NBC is breathing a little easier, having peddled 10-12ths of its air time. ABC is smiling bravely, being 75 per cent sponsored. The latter two hope to be sold out by the Monday start.

It wouldn't be Los Angeles without them. The religious zealots have made their feelings known with placards in front of the Biltmore. One older seemed to be spear-heading the stop-Kennedy drive. His message: "Wisdom, one of man's great assets, comes with age—seldom below 55." Other slogans carry the general pattern of: Politicians, repent!

David Brinkley, the quiet wit of the Huntley-Brinkley TV punditry, was admiring the Sports Arena facilities. A vet of other conventions in the Chicago Stockyards and San Francisco's Cow Palace, he commented: "This is the first time we haven't followed cattle into the hall."

History-making Women Play Leading Convention Roles As Democrats Meet In L.A.

BY FRANCES LEWINE
The Associated Press

MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

Although not a delegate this time, Mrs. Roosevelt has been invited to be a Democratic Convention speaker once again. But she has said, her primary concern at Los Angeles will be promoting the nomination of Adlai Stevenson for a third try at the presidency.

Mrs. Roosevelt at 75 is chairman of the Civil Rights Advisory Committee of the Democratic Advisory Council—charged with drawing up recommendations for a civil rights plank for the Democratic party platform.

Mrs. Roosevelt, affectionately regarded by most Democrats, has been active in politics since the early 1920s and is credited with getting party recognition of the importance of women in political organizations.

She was the first wife of a President to address a national convention when she spoke in 1940, the year FDR was nominated for a third term. She has spoken often since.

In 1952, convention delegates gave her a 15-minute ovation and presented a scroll acclaiming her "an American citizen of the world."

MRS. RUDD BROWN—Mrs. Brown, granddaughter of the "silver-tongued orator," William Jennings Bryan, will be a member of the powerful 81-vote California delegation.

Tall, attractive, 39-year-old Mrs. Brown, wife of Cal Tech scientist Harrison Brown, is also running a second time for Congress from her state's 21st District.

Mrs. Brown's famed grandfather three times was an unsuccessful Democratic presidential candidate.

Her mother, the late Ruth Bryan Owen Rohde was a congresswoman from Florida.

MRS. VEL PHILLIPS—Mrs. Phillips, who made history as the first woman alderman in Milwaukee in 110 years, is co-chairman of the convention committee on rules and order of business.

She was the first Negro in modern times to be named by either party as chairman or co-chairman of any of the four standing committees.

Mrs. Phillips also was the first Negro woman of the Democratic National Committee, when she was elected in 1958.

Mother of two boys, she is active in law practice in Milwaukee with her husband, Dale Phillips.

MRS. MARGARET PRICE—Mrs. Price has the distinction of being the first woman chairman of the Committee on Permanent Organization.

There hasn't been a woman head of one of the major Democratic convention committees since 1948, when veteran politician Mrs. Mary T. Norton, congresswoman protégé of boss Frank Hague of Jersey City, N. J., was credentials committee chairman.

Mrs. Price moves into the post held in 1956 by Gov. Leroy Collins of Florida, now the convention chairman.

A native of New York, now living in Ann Arbor, Mich., 58-year-old Mrs. Price has virtually been commuting between her home state and Brazil where her husband, Hickman Price, is representative for an automotive export firm.

Active in politics since the 1940s, she was defeated when she ran in 1948 and 1950 for the post of state auditor general in Michigan.

A delegate to the past two conventions, Mrs. Price also has been active as a member of several Michigan welfare and youth groups.

REP. EDITH GREEN (D-ORE)—Mrs. Green goes to the convention as chairman of the Oregon delegation—first woman ever to hold such a post at a major party convention.

A congresswoman since 1954, Mrs. Green is in Sen. John F. Kennedy's corner in the presidential race.

She was chairman of Kennedy's successful Oregon primary campaign against Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore).

Mrs. Green, 50, heads the 34-member delegation from her state, with its 17 votes pledged to Kennedy. There are about 10 women in the Oregon delegation.

A former school teacher, she has led a long fight to get through Congress to provide grants for research and better trained personnel. She has backed school aid and education bills as well.

She's the wife of Arthur Green, a building contractor. They have two sons.

MRS. KATIE LOUCHEIM

Dynamic vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Mrs. Loucheim will be a busy neutral amid the delegates.

She'll preside at a series of early morning "Coffee with Katie" news conferences on the woman's angles at the convention.

Head of the party's women's activities since 1953 Mrs. Loucheim is one of the best known lady Democrats. She not only has chalked up close to 200,000 miles on political trips, but has helped many women—and men—get elected to office.

Katie, who is a resident of the voteless District of Columbia, would love to be a senator or congresswoman herself. But nobody runs for those offices from D. C. and Mrs. Loucheim contents herself with plugging for other candidates.

A native of New York City, she is the wife of a private investment counselor who came to Washington in early New Deal days to work for the Securities and Exchange Commission. She has two married daughters and now devotes herself full time to politics.

Her real name is Kathleen but nobody ever calls her anything but "Katie."

She did wartime work for the U.N. Relief and Rehabilitation Administration; got into politics at the national level working in the 1940 presidential campaign, and was elected to the Democratic National Committee in 1956.

She frowns on women who stay out of politics or are non-partisan.

MRS. DOROTHY VREDEBURGH

She'll call the convention roll of the states again for the Democrats with a Southern accent, starting off with her home state of Alabama.

Mrs. Vredenburg is no longer the rarity she was back in 1944 when the Democrats tapped her to be the first woman ever to hold the post of convention secretary in a major party.

Then only 27, she replaced George E. Allen, who left the job to campaign for Harry Truman.

Tall, slender, attractive, with blue eyes, Mrs. Vredenburg earned a reputation of being an astute politician, an able campaigner and a diplomatic peace-maker.

She was married to a wealthy Alabama Sumnerman, Peter Vredenburg, who died early in 1956.

She held a top secretarial job before her marriage and was active among young Democrats.

In 1956, she supported Adlai

UP SYNODS PLAN SCHOOL

The ninth annual summer leadership training school sponsored by the United Presbyterian Synods of Pennsylvania and Baltimore will begin on July 10 on the Wilson College campus in Chambersburg. The school, which is expected to draw more than 1,500 persons, will continue until July 30 with each of the three weeks as a complete semester, offering a full slate of about 20 courses and a church school observation division. The Rev. Paul Wells, Philadelphia, will direct the program during the first week; Dr. William Yingling, Harrisburg, the second week, and the Rev. Robert McKibben, Baltimore, the third week.

Courses, taught by seminary professors, ministers, directors of Christian education and highly trained laymen, will cover phases of the total church program, including Sunday School, women's work, men's work, youth, children and general church officer training, as well as music and evangelism.

Of particular interest is the observation division where the students observe a class of children being taught under the same conditions as might be experienced on a Sunday morning in the local church. At the conclusion of the lesson hour the children are dismissed while the teacher then discusses the principles behind her class leadership. The observation program is under the direction of Miss Margaret Crofoot, Abington, for the first two weeks and Miss Marjorie Mercer, Shadyside, for the final week.

Vesper speakers will include Rev. J. Paul Leap, associate field director for Christian Education, Harrisburg; Rev. Joseph Baus, Christian Education field director, Pittsburgh Presbytery, and Rev. Paul Wells, field director of Christian Education, Philadelphia Presbytery.

Churches Are Invited To Cooperate In Civil War Centennial '61-65

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Twenty-five thousand copies of a booklet designed to organize the churches of America behind the five-year Civil War Centennial program soon will be placed in the mails from the national headquarters here. They will go to all parts of the nation, to addresses chosen without regard to locality or to faith.

Entitled "The Role of Religion In The Civil War Centennial," the booklet offers a list of suggested Centennial activities for religious organizations, including both the clergy and lay groups. It also offers a bibliography to aid in preparing such programs.

The booklet was prepared under the supervision of the National Civil War Centennial Commission's Religious Cooperative Council, a group of distinguished church leaders serving in an advisory capacity. Members include: the Rev. Edwin T. Dahlberg, president, National Council of Churches of Christ; Rabbi Max D. Davidson, president, Synagogue Council of America; Dr. Oswald C. J. Hoffman, director of public relations, Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod; Monsignor Peter Leo Johnson, St. Francis Seminary; Dr. Charles W. Lowry, chairman, Foundation for Religious Action in the Social and Civil Order; Dr. Ramsey Pollard, president, Southern Baptist Convention; Dr. Thomas F. Zimmerman, National Association of Evangelicals; the Rev. Billy Graham, Montreat, N. C.; Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin, Los Angeles, Calif.; and the Very Rev. Francis B. Sayre Jr., dean, Washington Cathedral, Washington, D. C.

In a letter accompanying the booklet, Major General U. S. Grant 3rd, chairman of the National Commission, has invited the churches to cooperate "in an undertaking which cannot fail to provide inspiration to all Americans."

"Far beyond the educational historical features planned in many localities," he explained, "the National Commission desires to impress upon our own people and upon those in other lands the tremendous significance of the spiritual aspects of the great struggle, as well as what were our losses and our gains. The important thing for us to remember is that all these men who fought were fighting for principles."

Karl S. Betts, executive director of the National Commission, said the churches will be encouraged to focus their attention on special programs to be arranged as a part of services planned for next January 8, the Sunday on which the centennial will formally begin.

Special Message
"At that time," he announced, "the story of the chaplains in the armed services, the humanitarian and religious activities of religious of religious bodies, and the spiritual legacy of the Civil War will be given special attention."

As other features of the opening ceremony, the White House is expected to issue a special message to all Americans to cooperate in the centennial, and the service academies of the nation will stage special programs recalling their part in the war of a century ago. At Charleston, S. C., observances will go on for three days, with special emphasis on the incident there on January 9, 1861, when a ship sent to reposition Fort Sumter was fired on and driven out of the harbor. The booklet stresses the impact of the war on religion. In no other

LONDON (AP) — Britain will retain two bases on Cyprus totaling 99 square miles when the Mediterranean island becomes independent. The British at first wanted bases covering 122 square miles. The Cypriots offered only 36 square miles.

DARWIN, Australia (AP) — Nellie D'Antoine, 80, a grandmother, jumped 20 feet from a wharf into the sea and rescued her grandson, Robin Taylor, 4.

"My dress acted like a parachute and when I hit the water, I had my legs free to swim," she said, adding that she had not been swimming for 20 years.

war, it recalls, were ministers of all faiths more etched on the minds and hearts of so many soldiers. Some of the church leaders endured field service throughout the entire conflict. Others requested and received commands, fighting for the same principles which imbued the ranks.

"The American Civil War was more than a test of arms," the booklet explains. "It was a spiritual proving ground as eternal as the human spirit."

Sect Members Seal Homes, Hoard Food, Await Blast

BENSON, Ariz. (AP) — Members of a small religious sect apparently are barricaded in their sealed homes and church awaiting an atomic attack from which they expect to be the only survivors, a sheriff's officer reports.

Known as the Full Gospel Assembly, the group is believed to include about 20 families. Their homes and church are close together on the outskirts of this small southern Arizona town.

"It's like a tomb down there," Deputy Sheriff Ray Coffey said Tuesday night. "There isn't a soul around, not even a dog. They don't answer their telephones or their doors."

"In the past couple of weeks they've bought at least $30,000 to $50,000 of food. I saw some of them load about $25,000 worth into a truck at a wholesale house in Tucson myself."

"The neighbors tell me they carted the food into their homes until after midnight Monday. Then they must have sealed themselves in because they sure aren't around now."

"All of the windows and doors on the houses are covered with newspapers and tape. They've even covered their evaporative coolers and plugged keyholes. I guess they're afraid of radiation or something."

"From what I gather, they figure they'll be the only ones left after this attack."

Authorities became aware of the situation Tuesday when Warren Burke of Benson complained that his wife and four children were missing.

Burke, who is not a member of the sect, told officers his wife recently had talked vaguely about the church, the world's end and atomic attacks.

Members of the sect arrived in Benson about six months ago from Columbus, Ohio. Coffey said their leader is the Rev. Ann Weimer, a former Assembly of God minister.

Acid In River Is Wiping Out Fish

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Acid from an unknown source has caused the death of thousands of fish in the Allegheny River near the communities of Millvale and Acetonia. Deputy Game Protector Charles Rupert of nearby Oakmont said dead fish are being washed up on the shore and thousands of others are sick and surfacing for oxygen. Gills of the fish have been burned by the acid, he explained.

The white and lavender blue columbine is the Colorado state flower.

PAYROLLS IN
U. S. SENATORS'
OFFICES GO UP

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
Associated Press Special Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 7½ per cent pay increase Congress has voted for federal employees means a boost in the cost of running Pennsylvania's congressional offices.

Individual employees in the various offices will receive pay increases ranging from a few hundred dollars a year up to the more than $1,200 a year that will go to James Sunquist, administrative assistant to Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.).

Sundquist, who was paid $4,075 for the first quarter of this year—or a rate of $16,300 a year—is the highest paid employee in any Pennsylvania office. Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa.) paid his administrative assistant, William Murphy, $3,638 for the first three months of the year or a rate of $14,554 annually.

Increase Mandatory

The new pay law, which took effect immediately upon Congress' overriding of President Eisenhower's veto, makes the increase mandatory in House members' offices but gives senators the option on whether to boost employees' pay checks.

Clark and Scott have indicated they will approve the increase for their office employees. Both voted to override the presidential veto.

Four Pennsylvanians in the House voted to sustain the veto. They were Reps. Paul B. Dague, Walter M. Mumma, and John A. Lafore and Herman T. Schneebeli, all Republicans.

Up $10,000

The total annual payroll in Clark's office will rise from about $137,500 to about $147,900. Clark listed 23 employees for the first quarter. That or Scott, who listed 28 employees, will go from approximately $135,300 to about $145,500.

House members are permitted about $35,000 for their annual payroll. This now will rise by about $2,500.

Eight Pennsylvania congressmen currently are paying the top scale permitted office aides in the House. This is listed as a basic salary of $7,000 a year but actually amounts to $13,344.

Receiving the top scale, which now will rise to $14,345, are these aides:

William A. Irvine, with Rep. William J. Corbett (R); Roy M. Edwards, with Rep. Ivar D. Fenton (R); Eugene D. Hegarty, with Rep. Daniel J. Flood (D); Estelle M. Taylor, with Rep. William J. Green (D); John H. Weiner, with Rep. Thomas E. Morgan (D); Virginia Morris, with Rep. Herman T. Schneebeli (R); Thomas E. Sheridan, with Rep. James E. Van Zandt (R); and Ruth Miskell, with Rep. Francis E. Walter (D).

Rep. John P. Saylor (R), with one of the smallest office forces at the Capitol—only three persons listed—pays just below the top scale. Aides Harry M. Fox and Ann Dunbar both received $11,117 for May, the last complete month listed. This is a rate of $13,336 a year and means a $1,000 pay boost under the new law.

Dague and Rep. Leon H. Gavin (R) also listed only three persons on their payroll with the total falling far below the amount allowed.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Lightly spent the weekend in the northern part of Pennsylvania.

LIVED TO 106
ON HARD CANDY

TARENTUM, Pa. (AP) — A Pennsylvania woman who attributes her long life to eating hard candy is celebrating her 106th birthday today.

Mrs. Marion Erbe says she still munches on hard candy while watching television — which she often does without her glasses.

"Grandma" Erbe is celebrating her birthday with a party at the Fair Winds Convalescent Home in Armstrong County, where she is now living.

More than 300 birthday cards have arrived for her.

Several weeks ago she was hospitalized for about a month for a circulatory condition. It was the first time she had been hospitalized.

Mrs. Erbe is a native of Scotland.

Is Beaten Down

PARIS (AP) — "Business goes on as usual in the tennis world next year—with the professionals working one side of the street and the amateurs the other.

There will be no mixing, except as Jack Kramer may scramble the field by enticing some of the better amateurs into his professional fold.

The prospect of open tournaments, pitting the pros against the amateurs, was battered down Wednesday by the smaller nations.

CRUCIAL ROLE FACING STATE DELEGATION

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania delegates enroute for Los Angeles Friday with high hopes they will be the crucial key to the Democratic national convention.

With 81 votes and an important position far down the alphabetical roll call of delegations, hopes of the Keystone states are underlined.

A vanguard of top state Democrats departs from Philadelphia International Airport late today. That group includes Gov. David Lawrence, delegation chairman, and a national committeeman; Matthew H. McCloskey, Philadelphia state and national party finance chairman; Mayor Richardson Dilworth, of Philadelphia, and a few other officials.

Green On Scene
U. S. Rep. William Green Jr., Philadelphia city chairman, is already on the scene at Los Angeles. He is a member of the convention Platform Committee.

But the majority of the 162-member group of delegates and 81 alternates delegates will depart in special planes Friday from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

In a flurry of last minute packing and discussions the Pennsylvania delegation appears set for a split decision on the first ballot for a presidential nominee. Lawrence emphatically neutral himself, has predicted votes for all of the candidates on the first count.

Vote Breakdown
This is a consensus of first ballot predictions by a dozen top delegates: Sen. John F. Kennedy (Mass.), 20; Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, (Texas), 20; Adlai Stevenson, two-time Democratic candidate for president, 25; Sen. Stuart Symington (Mo.), 10, miscellaneous, 6.

The issue will come to a head Monday at noon (EDT) in Los Angeles, when the delegates will hear the three announced candidates—Kennedy, Johnson and Symington—and a spokesman for Stevenson.

Then the delegates will meet in closed caucus to take their first sampling of sentiment. The outcome could have a broad effect on the next three days of convention maneuvering up to the actual calling of the roll.

Prior to the critical Monday morning caucus the various factions in the delegation will be at work drumming up support for their favorites.

Dr. William D. McClelland, delegate-at-large, has contended Kennedy will get up to half of Pennsylvania's votes on the first ballot.

Rep. H. G. Andrews, speaker of the House, an early Kennedy backer, is not so optimistic, but he looks for growing support on later ballots.

The backers of the other candidates have kept their own counsel for the most part.

It is expected a substantial portion of the delegates will follow the lead of Lawrence and Green. The top policy makers, like Lawrence are firmly neutral. With the exception of Andrews and McClelland, none of the 42 delegates at large have pinned down first-ballot preferences.

Boy, 11, Drowns In Tank Of Oil

CLARION, Pa. (AP) — Robert Harnish, 11, fell into a large tank of oil Wednesday and drowned. Fire Chief John Dunlap of Parker said Harnish, who lives near New Freedom, apparently was overcome by oil fumes as he stood on a ladder against the tank. He was watching Warren Fulmer, his uncle, fill the tank. Dunlap said Fulmer saw the youth's fee disappear beneath the surface. The uncle opened the tank outlets to drain the oil and then ran two miles to call firemen.

THREATEN TO JOIN UNION

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A union official says civilian technicians at missile bases in Pennsylvania may join a union if some of their labor grievances are not ironed out.

Charles C. Levey, international vice president of the Building Service Employees Union, said Wednesday he sent a letter to State Adjutant Gen. Anthony J. Drexel Bidde Jr., asking him to look into complaints by technicians.

Technicians had claimed their working conditions are inequitable and discriminatory.

Levey said he refused union membership for the workers at a meeting here June 30 because of their close relationship with military defense.

"However, the matter is not closed," Levey added. "It is not beyond the realm of possibility

Flare Explodes; Explorer Killed

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A homemade magnesium flare exploded Wednesday night in the hands of Albert W. Schmidt, 18, of Lansdale, Pa., as he and a companion were investigating an underwater cave. Schmidt was killed instantly.

Police said Schmidt and his companion, Paul A. Eshbach, 17, also of Lansdale, were wearing diving apparatus and had plunged into a water-filled rock quarry pit for a second time after discovering a cave about 40 feet below the surface of the water. Eshbach escaped injury.

56-YEAR-OLD GRANDFATHER SETS RECORD

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — A tall, rangy man with a pair of twinkling eyes sighed with relief as his attractive wife placed a hot compress on his stiff knee.

"I'm not a bit tired—right now," said Max Conrad, a 56-year-old grandfather with a disdain for flying records. "But I wish I could get my right knee to straighten out."

Conrad's flip remark, spoken in the shy manner that has stayed with him through years of flying fame, came as the lanky Winona, Minn., man pulled himself from his Piper Comanche plane after smashing the closed-circuit record for light planes.

Doubled Mark

Conrad more than doubled the mark set last year by Jure Kunc, a Czech, in flying 6,920 miles from here to Chicago and Des Moines, Iowa, eight times and still had gasoline left for another 500 miles, he said.

He landed at Wold Chamberlain airport at 7:38 Wednesday night after 60 hours and 10 minutes without sleep. Kunc's mark was 3,083 miles.

TOKYO (AP) — Sixty persons including 12 policemen were injured Tuesday in a stone-throwing battle between rival coal mine unions in Kyushu, Japan's southern main island.

No one was reported seriously injured.

ART OF RIDING BUSES IS MARK OF NY SUCCESS

By ART MERIMS

NEW YORK (AP)—A neglected phase of how to succeed in New York is mastering the art of riding the big town's buses.

The veteran of surface transport lines pines for the forces of gravity, motion and balance. He becomes familiar with exotic dialects, and learns the psychoanalytic mysteries first probed by Freud, Jung and Adler. He must know instantly every possible change combination for a dollar bill.

New York bus drivers are determined to pass you by, especially if you are alone on a rainy day without an umbrella.

"The Plot"

Then there is a phenomenon which is known simply as "the plot" to weary waiters. Three buses arrive together at a stop. The first bus is jammed, the next in line has a few passengers, and the third is empty.

The expert boards the first, aware that the drivers are determined to keep things as is. If you try for the second or third vehicle, the door slams and the bus moves off—and you'll probably have to wait half an hour for another gregarious conveyance.

For those who do get on, the next gambit is paying the 15-cent fare. The expert always has the exact change, even if it means first buying a packet of cough drops at the corner drugstore.

Strenuous Operation

Handing the driver a quarter of half-dollar entails a strenuous, swaying pause as the vehicle veers into traffic. Passengers with the correct change have taken any available seats.

The great objective always is to find a seat. If you are a woman you will probably have to stand, especially if you are elderly and not agile among competitors. Wedged upright, beware of your neighbor's spike heels when the bus lurches. Mutter softly when your foot is trod on. Short cries of pain are permitted when an umbrella is ground into your ankle.

Once seated, other problems arise. A neighbor bubbling with joy can be stared out of it. Whistlers and hummers are disconcerted if you start another tune. As for the constant sneeze—better give up your seat.

When getting off, you may spot

Get Electronics Gear At 4c Per Pound

The Gettysburg Joint School System and Gettysburg College got a share of more than a half million dollars worth of electronics equipment one day last week at the Mechanicsburg Naval Supply Depot at four cents per pound during a "pennies per pound" distribution of surplus materials.

In the photo above, Lt. Cmdr. Harold R. Davis (left); David W. Woods (center), mathematics teacher at Gettysburg High School, and William R. Bush, director of the state Bureau of Federal Surplus Property Utilization, are shown inspecting a radio sending and receiving unit with variable frequencies. It weighed 290 pounds. Another 100 pounds of small items were selected for Gettysburg High School at a total of $15.60.

Dr. Richard Mara and Prof. Theodore C. Daniels of the physics department at Gettysburg College selected 225 pounds of tubes, switches and components estimated to be worth between $1,000 and $2,000. They cost the college $9.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP)—Bellamy Partridge, 82, editor, literary critic and author of numerous books, including "Horse and Buggy," "Country Lawyer" and "Salad Days," died Tuesday at Bridgeport Hospital. He was a former literary critic for the old New York World, the New York Herald Tribune and the Saturday Review of Literature.

State Congressmen On Teamster List

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three Pennsylvania members of the House have been listed by the International Brotherhood of Teamsters as having spoken recently in Congress against the prolonged monitorship of the union.

They are Reps. John H. Dent of Jeannette and Elmer Holland and retired Presbyterian minister, he once worked with evangelist Billy Sunday as a composer and musician.

440 Road Deaths Reported Over 4th

CHICAGO (AP)—A record 440 deaths were reported on the nation's highways during the three-day Fourth of July holiday.

The final toll far exceeds the previous mark for a three-day Independence Day celebration—407 recorded in 1955.

Accidental deaths during the period—6 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday—also included 34 in boating accidents, 123 drownings and 110 from other causes for an over-all total of 707.

UNION HEAD SAYS STRIKE "EFFECTIVE"

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—The Association of Professional Engineering Personnel said today its strike against Radio Corporation of America was 100 per cent effective.

Human B. Natkin, president of the striking union said, "our picket lines are being respected by all other unions."

There was no immediate comment from RCA.

Pickets of the association gathered at the plants at 6 a.m. (edt). It was the second day of a strike called by the union against RCA plants in Camden, Delaware Township, Moorestown and Pennsauken Township, all in New Jersey, and Croydon, Pa.

Police in Moorestown today arrested four pickets.

The union president said he had protested to Gov. Robert B. Meyner in Trenton on what he called "police interference."

The contracts of some 2,400 engineers and scientists with the company expired last Friday. The union is asking a six percent wage boost and the company has offered 3½ percent. The union, however, says a job security clause is the main issue. Members of the association earn from $6,000 to $20,000 a year.

In the Moorestown disturbance, William S. Moorhead of Pittsburgh, all Democrats.

The union in its monthly publication, "The International Teamster," said this brings to 36 the total members of Congress who have denounced the court-appointed monitor setup.

The union, expelled by the AFL-CIO, was placed under monitorship in a move to clean up reported malpractices.

FORMER MODEL WILL TRY SWIM FISH FASHION

LONDON (AP)—Pretty Jane Baldasare, 25, flew in from America Wednesday for an English Channel swim with a difference.

She is going to try to cross the Channel fish-fashion—under water, that is—in a form-fitting rubber suit equipped with oxygen tanks.

The try will be made from the French side sometime in August when the tides are right. The starting point will be Cap Gris Nez and the target Dover, England, 23 miles away.

Mrs. Baldasare, a blonde former model from Astoria, Queens, N.Y., expects the swim to take 30 to 50 hours. Her underwater nourishment will be mainly egg nog with a brandy base.

The swim is sponsored by an American business firm, and underwater TV cameras will record her progress.

With Mrs. Baldasare is her husband.

one picket was charged with assault and battery on a police officer and three others were held on disorderly conduct charges.

Held on the assault charge was Marion J. Hancock, 29, Moorestown. Booked for disorderly conduct were Edwin J. Podell, 36, Philadelphia; Francis L. Walker, 30, Barrington, and Terrence A. Dear, 25, Moorestown.

Police said pickets interfered with a Public Service bus at the plant.

U.S. Will Protest Interests If Reds Open Cuban Sub Base

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said the United States will act as it sees fit—if necessary—to protect its interests if Russia establishes a submarine base in Cuba.

He said, however, he does not regard the setting up of a Soviet submarine base as a likelihood, but such a thing is a possibility.

Eisenhower was asked at his news conference whether he agrees with a statement by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) that the United States might look for the establishment of such a base.

The President said he was not going to make any guesses about such a possibility. Such things are always possible in this world, he said.

POOL CHURCH RESOURCES

WESCOSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A Seventh-Day Adventist official has called for pooling of church resources to combat "licentious literature" on the newsstands and replace it with good books and material.

Bruce M. Wickwire, of Takoma Park, Md., secretary of the publishing department of the Columbia Union Conference of Adventists, spoke Tuesday at a session of the 50th annual summer conference of eastern Pennsylvania Adventists.

band, Fred, who produces training films for the U.S. armed forces and will supervise the swim from an accompanying launch.

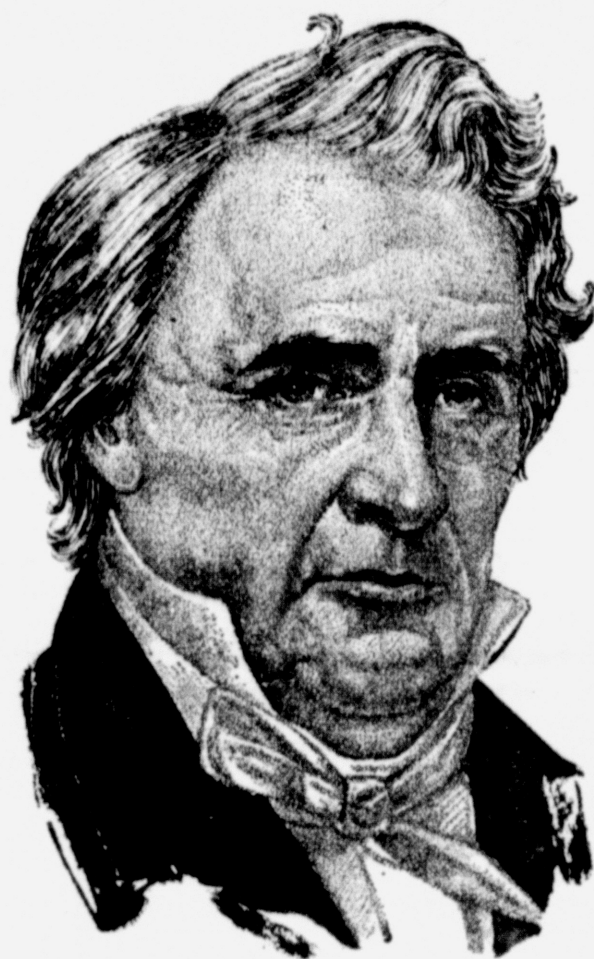

Have No Quarrel

Eisenhower said this country is trying hard to have the Cubans understand that there is no quarrel between the people of this country and them but that the difficulties are caused only by what he called the inexplicable actions of their government.

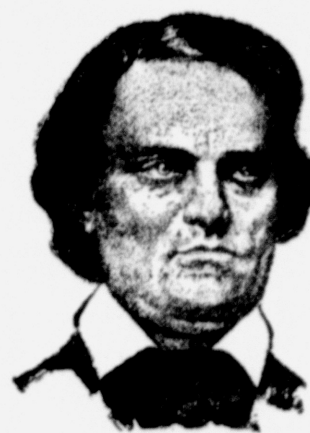

The discussion came up as Eisenhower was reported prepared to slash U.S. sugar imports from Cuba which have paid big premiums to Cuban growers.

MR. PRESIDENT

by Patrick and Vinmont

JAMES BUCHANAN

Born in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, April 23, 1791. He graduated from Dickinson College in 1810. He then studied law. After serving in the War of 1812 as a private he established himself in law practice.

He entered politics at 24 as a member of the Pennsylvania legislature. During the following 40 years he served as a member of Congress, Minister to Russia, United States Senator, Secretary of State in Polk's cabinet and Minister to England under Pierce. For twenty years an unsuccessful candidate for the Presidential nomination, he was finally chosen by the Democrats and elected in 1856.

Inaugurated the fifteenth President of the United States on March 4, 1857. Almost on the first day of his administration the Supreme Court held in the Dred Scott decision that Congress had no power to keep slavery out of the territories. The fuse of the Civil War had already been lighted in Kansas; the Lincoln-Douglas debates heralded the coming conflict; John Brown's raid at Harper's Ferry further fanned the flames. Unjustly blamed for this web of circumstances which had been spinning since the beginning of the Union, he retired at the end of his term to his home near Lancaster, Penn. He died on June 1, 1868, aged 77.

JOHN CABELL BRECKINRIDGE

Born in Lexington, Kentucky, 1821. He attended Center College and Transylvania Institute, studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1843. At 28 he was elected a member of the State legislature and two years later he became a member of the United States House of Representatives. He was elected Vice-President of the United States in 1856—the youngest man ever elected to this high office. He was the candidate for President on the Southern Democratic ticket in 1860. He served a few months as a United States Senator in 1861. He was against disunion but when dissolution was inevitable he sided with the Confederacy. He was a major general in the Confederate Army and acted as Secretary of War for the Confederate States. He died in 1875.

HARRIET LANE

Harriet Lane was born in 1833. Her parents died when she was a child and she was brought up by her bachelor uncle, James Buchanan. At twenty-four she entered the White House as his official hostess. Beautiful, well educated, intelligent, socially accomplished and in perfect health, she was fully equipped for her task. As hostess for her uncle, when he was Ambassador to Great Britain, she had attended court functions and dined with Queen Victoria. In the White House she presided superbly over the most brilliant and lively social events the Mansion had witnessed. In 1866 she married Henry Johnston. She died in 1903.

CONGO TROOPS NEAR MUTINY OVER DEMANDS

LEOPOLDVILLE, Congo (AP)—About 200 soldiers of the Congo army demonstrated for several hours Wednesday in front of the infant African nation's Parliament building, demanding removal of all their white Belgian officers.

Other soldiers mutinied Tuesday night in Thysville, 75 miles southwest of the capital, and imprisoned their white officers.

The demonstrators in Leopoldville at one point roughed up the army's Belgian commander, Gen. Emile Janssen, and seized his pistol.

Finally Disband

They finally marched back to their barracks after speeches by Prime Minister Patrice Lumumba and other government ministers.

The demonstration was confined largely to the Parliament building and the barracks. Otherwise life in the capital continued much as usual.

There were reports that the rebellious soldiers also want higher pay.

The force has no commissioned Congolese officers. It has been invaluable to the Belgians in maintaining order in this nation.

Church Must Grow As Community Does

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—The church as a community institution must be sensitive to community change, a speaker asserted Wednesday at the first annual conference on the Church and the Community.

Dr. Roy C. Buck, associate professor of rural sociology at Pennsylvania State University, said:

"The church must grow and change with its people. This is not to say that the message of the church changes. It simply means that the message must be continuously relevant to the changing character of the community's population."

Buck also said that "Protestant churches tend to be class oriented, and roughly the further down the social-economic scale, the more likely the sect type church is attractive to people."

The four-day conference is sponsored by the university and the Pennsylvania Council of Churches.

Goldfine Begins His Jail Sentence

BOSTON (AP)—Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine, 69, Tuesday was ordered to begin serving immediately a three-month jail sentence for contempt of court.

His secretary, Miss Mildred Paperman, 42, also was ordered to begin serving a 10-day sentence for a similar offense.

Both were refused complete reduction or suspension of sentence by U.S. Dist. Judge Charles E. Wyzanski Jr.

Goldfine will serve his sentence at the federal penitentiary in Danbury, Conn., and Miss Paperman in the Middlesex county jail, Cambridge, Mass.

Hollywood Brush Fire Under Control

JAP BEETLES REQUIRE GOOD DUST CONTROL

During the past week adult Japanese beetles have been rapidly emerging in this area and are causing considerable damage to flowers and shrubbery.

The adult beetle is slightly less than half an inch long, and a shiny metallic green, with copper-brown wings. They can be recognized readily by 12 white spots along the sides and rear of the body. The beetles fly only in the daytime. They are especially active on warm, sunny days.

The beetles feed on leaves, flowers, and fruits of many kinds of plants. Some of the preferred are grape, raspberry, apple, cherry, peach, plum, linden, willow, chestnut, elm, sassafras, rose, zinnia, and corn silks.

Control Measures
The foliage and fruit of most plants may be protected from beetle attack by applying sprays or dusts that are toxic to the insect. Timeliness and thoroughness of application are most important. Begin treatment as soon as beetles appear, before damage is done. More than one application may be necessary to maintain effective protection. Anyone of the following materials should give good control.

Use the following materials for one gallon and 100 gallon quantities respectively:

DDT 50% wettable powder, 3 tablespoons or 3 pounds.

DDT 25% emulsion, 4 teaspoons or 2 quarts.

Methoxychlor 50% wettable powder, 3 tablespoons or 3 pounds.

Methoxychlor 25% emulsion, 4 teaspoons or 2 quarts.

Malathion 25% wettable powder, 3 tablespoons or 3 pounds.

Malathion 57 emulsion, 2 teaspoons or 1½ pints.

Other Materials
Pyrethrum or rotenone materials should be used according to directions on the label.

Dust formulations can be obtained as follows: DDT 5%, methoxychlor 5%, malathion 4%, and rotenone 1%.

The only safe materials that will not leave a residue hazard on ripening fruit, such as apples, cherries, blueberries, raspberries, etc., are the pyrethrum or rotenone preparations. These materials do not give lasting protection; therefore, repeated applications at two to five-day intervals will be needed. Malathion may be used up to one day of harvest.

Precautions
1. Do not use DDT on ripening fruits and berries closer than 21 days before harvest. Methoxychlor may be used up to 14 days before harvest.
2. All insecticides are poisons. Label them as such. Store out of the reach of pets, children, and irresponsible persons. Call a physician in case of poisoning.
3. Do not use DDT on Chinese elms, since it may injure the trees.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Radio station WDXB didn't have to give away its free funeral after all.

In the interest of public safety, station owner Steve French had offered to give a free funeral to the first traffic victim in Hamilton County during the Fourth of July weekend.

However, the station made constant appeals for the public not to try for the prize. As the long weekend came to a close there had been no takers.

NBC TO HUDDLE WITH BLAIR ON FREE-LANCING

By BERNARD GAVZER

NEW YORK (AP) — After the turmoil of convention coverage ends, a platoon of NBC executives will sit down with Frank Blair and thrash out this problem:

Should a well-known newscaster also appear in TV commercials? Blair, the handsome gentleman who does the newscasting for "Today," has been in several huddles with network executives and there were rumors that some of the talk was tough.

Denies Tough Talk
"It wasn't, and isn't," Blair says.

The network reportedly got worried about the situation because it was thought the public might have some doubts about newscasts done by a man who also acts as spokesman for advertisers. NBC sent a memo to chiefs, tains and upper echelon talent which said (in substance) cut out any activity that could be interpreted as a conflict of interest.

Blair, sometimes referred to as the millionaire announcer ("Not true," he says, "the government gets most of it") has been busy as spokesman for four advertisers other than those on the "Today" show.

No Public Reaction
"I've never gotten any condemnation from the public about commercials," says Blair. "It would be interesting to know what the public attitude is."

Blair's contract with NBC describes him as a commentator, but he says "I'm the last of the standup newscasters."

"There was no ultimatum from NBC telling me that I have to give up free-lance commercial work," Blair says. "If I came to a showdown, I'd probably stay with NBC. I would not give up 25 years as a newscaster to become a commercial announcer. But there are a number of questions involved here."

Problems Involved

For instance: "Let's presume I tell NBC I can't give up commercials because they bring me a sizeable income. Of what value am I then to the advertiser? The advertiser wants me because of my association with news. Will he still want me without that association?"

"On the other hand, if the 'Cleanup TV' directive is going to apply to everybody, it will have to apply equally to me. I assume that under the directive I would do commercials on the 'Today' show but not on a free-lance basis. Then, there's the problem of contracts. I've got free-lance

EARHART CASE UNDER STUDY BY AIR FORCE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An Air Force officer says security officers are evaluating what he believes to be conclusive evidence that the Japanese executed aviatrix Amelia Earhart.

Miss Earhart and navigator Fred Noonan disappeared in July 1937 while crossing the Pacific on a projected round-the-world flight.

Capt. Paul Briand Jr. said Tuesday that an Air Force officer has photographic evidence and affidavits from 72 eyewitnesses to the capture and execution of Miss Earhart and Noonan.

Burial Site
And, said Briand, Capt. Joseph Gervais wrote him he had found, on the prewar Japanese mandate island of Saipan, "the original and only burial site of Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan."

Gervais' investigation was not an official Air Force inquiry. It was the second time in five days that unofficial investigators have claimed finding evidence that the Japanese killed the U.S. fliers.

Briand is author of a book titled "Daughter of the Sky" in which he proposes a theory that the Americans landed far off course at Saipan and were executed to keep them from telling the world that the Japanese were secretly fortifying the island.

Tokyo Denial
But in Tokyo a former imperial navy captain denied that such an execution occurred.

Zenshiro Hoshina was, in 1937, chief of the section of the Naval Affairs Bureau handling executions.

"I absolutely deny it," he told newsmen who told him of Briand's report. "No such execution could have taken place without my knowledge and approval."

TOKYO (AP) — Construction on a new home for Emperor Hirohito and Empress Nagako began Tuesday after Shinto rites on the moated Imperial Palace grounds near Tokyo's business center.

Completion is scheduled in October 1961.

The emperor and empress now live in a remodeled bomb shelter built during the war. Their palace was destroyed by American B29s in 1945.

contracts calling for my services for the next two years. You can't just break contracts.

"There's one thing I am certain about. I'm a newscaster. That's what I want to be. I'll go along with NBC within reason to maintain my status with the company and as a newscaster."

EISENHOWER'S PRESS REPORT COVERS FIELD

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower discussed a number of subjects at his press conference Wednesday morning including the following:

CUBA—The President indicated he would act later in the day or Thursday on a bill giving him discretion to reduce shipments of Cuban sugar to the United States. He gave no indication of whether he would cut Cuban quotas immediately after signing the bill.

BUDGET—Eisenhower declared it will be a miracle if the four-billion-dollar budget surplus which he estimated for the fiscal year which started July 1 is now realized.

Surplus Property
Prospects for a surplus of that size have been dashed, the President said, by the failure of Congress to meet his request for higher taxes on gasoline and for an increase in postal rates.

He also mentioned the 700-million-dollar cost of the new federal pay increase—put into effect over his veto—as another factor which will reduce the surplus the administration had forecast in January.

ECONOMY—So far as he knows, Eisenhower said, the fact that steel production is at about 50 per cent of capacity provides the only grounds for predictions by some economists that the country is headed for a new recession.

Capacity Equivalent
Actually, Eisenhower said, 50 per cent of capacity today is comparable to 75 per cent a few years ago because of the big increase in production facilities.

Eisenhower said the rate of steel production immediately after the strike settlement early this year was nothing short of astonishing.

As for the general economic situation, Eisenhower said that during April, May and June this year the output of all goods and services was at the rate of 503 billion dollars a year. He remarked also that employment was up by one million in May.

Convention Speech
CAMPAIGN — Eisenhower said

SWING KINGS ROCK STREET IN JAZZ ROMP

NEW YORK (AP) — Along Manhattan's swank East 66th street, the sound of music in the air was unmistakable. Somebody on high was belting out some of the finest vintage jazz this side of New Orleans.

Twenty-two stories up, in a penthouse roof garden, the King of Thailand and the "King of Swing" stood toe-to-toe for an hour, holding court with clarinet.

that at present his only plans for participation in the presidential and congressional election campaigns are a speech at the GOP National Convention in Chicago the evening of July 26, and a breakfast there the next morning. But in making that statement he did not rule out possible additional activity in the fall.

PRESIDENTIAL AGE — Asked for his views regarding the age of presidents, a question already figuring in this year's pre-convention campaigns, Eisenhower noted with a smile that if he serves out his current second term he will become the oldest president-in-office in history.

Passing Milestone
He will pass that milestone next Oct. 3—outstripping Andrew Jackson, Eisenhower will be 70 Oct. 14.

Eisenhower recalled that while president he has suffered three serious illnesses. He said he doesn't feel that those illnesses have been any decisive factor in his handling of his job.

Chuckling a bit, he went on to say that sometimes he may doubt his own intellectual judgment but he never doubts his own heart—that is, his determination to do the right thing.

NUCLEAR TESTS—Despite difficulties in reaching agreement with Russia, the President said, the United States and Britain should continue to make every effort to come to some understanding regarding a ban on nuclear weapons tests.

NEW PRESIDENT—Eisenhower pledged that his successor in the White House will have his full cooperation in the transition from one administration to the other. The new man, Eisenhower said, will find him ready and willing to discuss all problems facing the nation.

and saxophone.

Backed up by a group of other musicians of renown, King Bhumibol Adulyadej and Benny Goodman romped through such such venerable items as "Honey-suckle Rose," "Sunny Side of the Street," and "Sweet Georgia Brown."

Among the side men, Gene Krupa addressed the drums in frenzied fashion and Teddy Wilson coaxed wonders of delight from the ivory keys.

Nearly a hundred musicians and friends were on hand for the private royal jam session Tuesday.

BETTE GETS DIVORCE

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Actress Bette Davis won a divorce from her actor-husband, Gary Merrill, Wednesday. She testified Merrill was "a man who really must be on his own."

Merrill did not appear in court to contest the charge. He is in Spain making a movie. He was given 30 days in which to appeal. Court officials said there are indications, however, that he will not pursue the case.

Miss Davis, a resident of nearby Cape Elizabeth, was awarded a token alimony of a dollar a year and was given full custody of three children, one by a former husband, and two adopted by the Merrills.

NEW WARNING IS ISSUED BY RED PREMIER

VILLACH, Austria (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev implied Wednesday that Soviet troops will march into neutral Austria if American rocket bases in Italy are used against Soviet bloc countries.

He suggested the Austrians should advise Italy "not to play with fire."

Following up his statement in Salzburg that the Soviet Union "will not remain idle if Austrian neutrality is violated," he said at a luncheon given in Klagenfurt by the governor of Carinthia Province: "One cannot help becoming aware that the presence of American rocket bases in northern Italy, if they are used against the Socialist (Communist) countries, would presuppose a violation of Austrian neutrality."

New Red Pretext
Listeners concluded that Khrushchev meant that the U.S.S.R.

would consider it had the right to march across Austria toward the Italian bases on the pretext of protecting Austrian neutrality.

Khrushchev made his threat as he suddenly cut short his tourist-like trip of the Austrian provinces to return to Vienna tonight, a day ahead of schedule. Austrian government sources said more time was needed for talks between Khrushchev and Chancellor Julius Raab.

Olympic National Park in Washington State contains the world's largest Sitka spruce, Douglas fir, western hemlock, and western red cedar, reports the National Geographic Society.

Amputee Dies In Two-Car Collision

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Fred A. Haws, 69, Norristown, was killed in a two-car collision Wednesday at Germantown Pike and Plymouth road in Montgomery County.

Haws, an amputee, died of head injuries in Montgomery Hospital. Police said he had no left arm or leg.

Police said Haws' car collided with a vehicle operated by Richard Rabut, 50, Conshohocken. Rabut suffered head cuts. He was enroute to work at the Lansdale Tube Co.

Paroled Murderer Says He Killed Four Other People

NEW YORK (AP) — An Elmira man out on parole for one murder, has told police he committed four others over the years, ranging from a teen-age slaying in 1926 to a double killing last week.

Details of the gruesome history unfolded Tuesday night and today as Frederick Wood, 48, related his tale of murder.

He told of poisoning a teen-age sweetheart with arsenic-filled cream puffs, beating to death and stabbing a woman he never knew and mutilating two elderly men because one allegedly made an indecent proposal and the other was a possible witness.

Leading to the break in the case were two notes left in the Queens apartment where the bodies of the two men were found on the Fourth of July.

Parole Is Denounced

One said: "How do you like these two murders? O-O-O I'm sorry." The other: "The people on the parole board are intelligent."

When word of Wood's parole reached his home town two months ago, law officials denounced the action. But the State Parole Board held that Wood apparently had adjusted during 17 years in prison. He had been convicted of fatally beating John E. Lowman, 42, with a broken beer bottle in Elmira in 1942.

A broken beer bottle also was used to disfigure both victims in last week's slayings.

The break in the case came on a tip from news director Michael J. Morgan of radio station WELM in Elmira.

In reading of the Queens slayings, Morgan was struck by the note that praised the parole board.

He called the Associated Press office in New York. AP writer Irish Donnelly passed the word to police.

TURNPIKE RECORD SET

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP) — The N. J. Turnpike reported today a record number of vehicles used the superhighway on July 1, the beginning of the July Fourth weekend. The Turnpike Authority said 197,844 vehicles used the highway. The previous record was 184,950 set on May 27, the beginning of the Memorial Day weekend.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Taipei police bureau is in danger of having all its phones cut off because it owes more than $5,000. The bureau said it did not have the money because its budget is too small. It asked the city government for a special appropriation.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru's government expects foreign nations to pay just over a fifth of the 21 billion dollars the third five-year plan is budgeted to cost.

NEW GIVEAWAY ON CBS LIKE KIDS' GAME

By BERNARD GAVZER
NEW YORK (AP) — There are hundreds of different kids games played on marked boards in which the players move toward the goal by flicking a spinner or tossing dice or picking cards.

Well, CBS has turned this into a grotesque giveaway game in which the contestants themselves move from spot to spot depending on the turn of the dice.

For people who have absolutely nothing else to do, this show will be available every day — 10:30 a.m., EDT — starting Monday, July 11. It also has a weekly nighttime windup each Friday — 9 p.m., EDT.

Video Village

It is called "Video Village." It is a place no sane human would risk visiting, let alone inhabiting. The mayor is Jack Narz and he is assisted by Joanne Copeland.

With the opening show last Friday, CBS re-entered the giveaway business it quit when the huge bubble of giveaways burst in scandal. "Video Village" is allegedly tamper-proof. Besides, the prizes are so trivial—$10 here, $25 there—CBS is certain no one would attempt cheating.

Allure Of Bizarre

The allure of the bizarre and the mysterious tends to make us pay close attention. Who is able to ignore the promise of a man flying or turn a deaf ear to the story of a ghost ship sailing the seas endlessly? Witchcraft holds this same fascination. At least, NBC hopes it does, for its second show of "Moment of Fear" deals with the subject in a story cunningly titled, "Conjure Wife."

Whether that moment of fear will come alive is conjecture. For a mystery to have impact, the fear has to transmit itself from the fictional character on the screen to the human being in the living room. In the first show in the new series, "The Golden pony rides for the children and the public is invited to attend.

ARE TESTING SPECIAL CAR

BERWICK, Pa. (AP) — A railroad car that looks something like a cross between a flatcar and a tank car is getting bashed and socked around here as a preliminary to handling a mighty special cargo — the Minuteman ballistic missile.

The car, called a "pre-prototype," has a special suspension system to permit the intercontinental missile to ride in shock-proof condition and to be launched from the car itself anywhere in the country.

Its compartments are loaded with sand, concrete or water to simulate actual weight distribution of the operational missile-loaded car. As part of its bump test, a heavy hopper car is rolled down a ramp, smashing into it.

The tests are being conducted at the Berwick car-building plant of the American Car and Foundry division of ACF Industries, Inc.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Property and Supplies Department reports a Reading firm has submitted the unofficial low bid on the last 60 compact cars to be purchased by the state this year.

Boyd S. Kline Co. Tuesday offered to sell the cars (all Studebaker Larks with standard gear shifts) for $1,531 each.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Negroes, in a switch of tactics, have begun a stay-away-from-downtown movement which they say will last until "conditions improve for all."

For several weeks—until Tuesday—Negroes had conducted sit-in demonstrations at various downtown stores in an attempt to get service at all-white lunch counters.

Deed," starring Macdonald Carey, this failed to happen.

The sense of danger never communicated itself; the moment never really materialized.

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — William A. (Fiddling Bill) Hensley, 86, a mountain fiddler who played before the late King George VI of England and his queen at a White House reception, died Monday.

Farm Issues Can Split Authors Of Democratic Party Convention Plank

By OVID A. MARTIN
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Democratic National Convention platform drafters jumped into the task of writing a party campaign document Tuesday by taking up first a controversial farm-aid issue.

Meeting nearly a week in advance of the big presidential nominating conclave, the resolutions committee arranged to hear a plea that the party abandon its long-time backing for federal crop controls and high farm price supports.

This plea was made by President Charles B. Shuman of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Congress Split
It was on this issue that the Democratic-controlled Congress split apart.

It rejected legislation by farm-belt Democrats proposing that Congress boost government price guarantees for wheat above levels provided by the Republican Eisenhower administration. Many city Democrats voted no.

The 104-member committee arranged to hear later in the week public recommendations for planks on other campaign issues, including the ticklish civil rights question that has plagued previous Democratic conventions.

Strong Planks
Members promised strong planks on foreign policy, medical care for the aged, federal aid to education, a boost in the federal minimum wage level, an accelerated rate of economic growth, more federal assistance for housing and help to depressed industrial areas.

Some party leaders counted heavily on a farm plank designed to capitalize in November on reports of a Midwestern farm revolt against policies of the Eisenhower administration designed to take government out of agriculture.

But the platform committee faced the possibility of an internal struggle similar to that staged by Congress, with considerable embarrassment to the Democrats. On the committee are a number of congressmen with conflicting positions on high price supports.

Standing by was a Democratic farm advisory committee which has gone on record in favor of re-establishing wartime price supports and crop controls. Gov. Herchel Loveless of Iowa, a vice-presidential possibility, heads this group. Other members include two former secretaries of agriculture, Claude R. Wickard and Charles F. Brannan.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Anna Mlynarski, 33, whose late husband once directed the Warsaw State Opera and was a founder of the Warsaw Philharmonic Orchestra, died Monday. Her daughter is Mrs. Artur Rubenstein, wife of the famed pianist.

DON'T THINK CONVENTION IS "RIGGED"

HARRISBURG (AP) — Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), one of the candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination, and Gov. David L. Lawrence of Pennsylvania say they don't think the national convention has been rigged. Symington made an unexpected visit to Harrisburg Tuesday to call on Jackson Boyd, Mrs. Symington's stepfather, who is a patient at Harrisburg Hospital.

Symington, who is seeking support from Lawrence, chairman of Pennsylvania's 81-vote convention delegation, sat with the governor during an interview. Lawrence has remained neutral.

Both Say "No"

Last Saturday, former president Harry Truman, who has endorsed Symington, told a radio and television audience that he withdrew as a delegate to the convention because it was rigged in favor of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass).

Symington said "there has been nothing to indicate to me there has been any rigging."

Earlier at his weekly news conference Lawrence gave an emphatic "no" when asked if he thought the convention was rigged. The governor also emphatically answered "no" when asked if he was pleased with convention seating assigned to the Pennsylvania delegation.

Kennedy May Fail

"It is evidence of Butler's affection for me," Lawrence added sharply. He and Paul M. Butler, Democratic national chairman, Lawrence reiterated his position he will remain neutral until the state delegation caucuses Monday morning at Los Angeles.

Symington said he is on count on 140 convention votes for the nomination but was doubtful of how much first ballot support he could muster.

"I've felt for several years that if Sen. Kennedy didn't make it on an early ballot, I would be the nominee," he told newsmen.

Cites Own Strength

"I'm at least as well qualified (for the presidency) as any other Democratic prospect," Symington added "and better qualified than any Republican."

Symington discounted the chance for nomination of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Texas), who announced his candidacy Tuesday.

"I've never felt Northern states would support Johnson," he added. Symington said his own greatest source of strength is "in the South and among Negroes." He also claimed the backing of "several unions."

Lawrence told the news conference that Kennedy, Symington and Johnson have been invited to address the Pennsylvania delegation caucus.

Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.) also was invited to speak in behalf of Adlai Stevenson, twice-defeated Democratic candidate for president.

LONDON, Ont. (AP) — Edward Dodd, 67, a London Free Press editor and veteran of 50 years in newspapers and allied fields in Canada and the United States, died Sunday.

LONDON (AP) — Mrs. Ernest W. Keyser, 74, widow of the American sculptor, died Monday in a London hospital after a long illness.

POWERS TO GET "OPEN TRIAL"

MOSCOW (AP) — Francis Gary Powers, the American U2 pilot held here on spy charges, will be given an "open trial," says Soviet Deputy Premier Frol Koslov.

Powers' name came up in conversation between reporters and Soviet officials at a U.S. Embassy Independence Day party.

Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan said it was up to the prosecutor to set the actual trial date. Mikoyan added he did not know when the trial would be held.

He commented that Powers will get justice, and Koslov chimed in with the statement "it will be open trial."

Powers has been held since last May 1. His U2 plane had been downed while on a spy flight over Soviet territory.
